

Hunt's Catch-Up

R. B. HUNT ELEMENTARY

From the Principal's Desk:

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Can you believe it is already May? We have so many great activities planned for the last week of school, but are continuing to learn and grow all this month. We thank you for your continued support of getting students to school on time, well rested and ready to learn. With the warmer weather, we appreciate parents making sure their children are dressed within the St. Johns County dress code. This includes, shorts that are finger tipped in length, no "strappy" tank tops and shoes with a back. Sorry, but flip flops are not safe for elementary students on the playground and in PE.

Congratulations to this years "Battle of the Books" team; Ryan Lomaglio, Emma Jo Ramey, Peyton Crevasse, Zach Albright and team captain, Jaden Harris-Hynes. The alternates are Riley Laurence and Jeffrey Cernease. These students will represent R. B. Hunt at the "Battle" on May 12th against all the southern St. Johns county elementary schools. We had a total of 116 students read 10 or more of the S.S.Y.R.A. books and qualify to represent R. B. Hunt, our representatives had the highest seven scores. Good luck team!

On Saturday our running club participated in the "Race for the Taste" 5K. Ryan O'Connell placed first, Ethan Pius and Emma Jo Ramey second, Abby Knight and Brinkley Johnson tied for fourth place. Thank you to Mrs. Knight for inspiring all of our runners!

Thank you to all of you who clipped "Box Tops" and turned them into the school. A very special thank you to Doris Flaherty for coordinating the project for P.T.A.O. They recently received a check for $659.60! The next deadline is May 22nd- keep clipping- it means free money for our school!

On Monday, Sarah Gilbert from Mrs. Basili's 5th grade class represented R. B. Hunt at the Tropicana Speech Contest at the Agricultural Center. Her speech was on "Moebius Syndrome" Sarah did a fantastic job, her delivery and speech content were outstanding! Thank you Sarah for representing our school so well! We are proud of you!

Have a great weekend!
