

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

I would like to congratulate R. B. Hunt's Volunteers of the Year. Jen Stevenson has been named our adult volunteer of the year. Jen has been involved with our P.T.A.O. and currently serves as president and has been an active business partner. She has put in countless volunteer hours and has been a leader in helping us to secure new playground equipment for our students as well as funding our technology needs. Most recently, she has secured support for us to have a permanent "Blessings in a Backpack" program for students who need food for the weekend.

Our senior volunteer of the year is Mrs. Susan Graham. I have had the privilege to work with Susan as a home economics teacher during my career. Now retired from teaching, she spends many hours here at Hunt working with our "Great Leaps" program. She has made such a difference in our student's reading fluency by her commitment to that program. Mrs. Graham is the proud grandmother of Mallory, who is in our third grade.

Our youth volunteer of the year is a former Hunt student, Hunter James. Hunter has volunteered the past two years working with our chess club along with volunteer Shelia McGill. The chess club will start up again for third through fifth grade students on Thursday, November 2nd. Please stop by the office for an application.

If you are planning to attend the "Parade of Characters" on Friday, October 27th at 8:45 a.m., please make sure you are a cleared volunteer to have building access. All visitors with you need to also be cleared. Please fill out the attached form if you want us to send your pre-approved badge home so you will not have to wait in line on Friday morning.

The Fall Festival is next Friday, October 27th, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. You can purchase an All-You-Can-Play bracelet for $8.00 until the Thursday before, after that, they are $10.00 at the door. There will be more than 30 booths, entertainment and a variety of food for sale. Lots of family fun for the whole family!

Have a Great Weekend,

Amanda S. Garman

School District Calendar Parent Input

The school district is asking for parent input on the school calendar for the 2019-20, 2020-21 and 2021-22 school years. The calendar committee has put together two calendars (an A and a B) for each of these three years. They are located on the school district website and input will be taken until October 27th.

PTAO News

Next Friday, October 27th, is our Annual Fall Festival! The deadline to send in a check for the discounted all you can play eight-dollar armbands is Tuesday, October 24th. You can also buy the armbands for $10 the day of the festival, or individual $2 tickets for the bounce house. Entrance is free. The Dance Company and North Florida Martial Arts will be performing at 6pm. There are some new and exciting booths, like a pie eating contest, Gaga Ball, and Zombie tag. Hope to see you all there!

While you are at the Fall Festival, please stop by the Book Fair in the multipurpose room. Your students will be visiting the Book Fair the following week, October 30th-November 3rd. By visiting Friday, you can help guide your child to choose a great book during their allotted time, get some early holiday shopping done (they have great stocking stuffers), or just check it out. They even have cookbooks, teen books, and SSYRA books. R.B. Hunt receives books for our library, teachers and Smartboards for the classrooms from Scholastic.

Business Partner News*The Salt Life Food Shack is a Beacon Donor!

In 2003, four friends from Jacksonville Beach created the Salt Life Brand. It has become very well known across America, and lucky for us, also a restaurant. The Salt Life Food Shack restaurant is right down the road from R.B. Hunt across from the St. Augustine Pier. They have burgers, seafood, sushi, poke bowls. Their fish tank was made by the show Tanked. They also have great live music.
