

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

The Fall Carnival is tonight! Bring the whole family from 5:30- 7:30 p.m. (The weather looks perfect!)

There will be booths, games, performances and food. All-You-Can-Play bracelets are for sale at the door for $10.00. Food and drinks will be available and the Book Fair will be in full swing. Join us for fun and fellowship!

R. B. Hunt will celebrate and honor our Veterans by having a special Wall of Honor in the front hallway during the month of November. Students and staff are invited to bring a copy (no originals) of a photo of family members in uniform representing a branch of military service. Please attach a note with your name, the service person's name, relationship, military branch and the years of service.

Congratulations to the following students who are now part of the "Principal's Million Word Club" they are Lauren Garrison, Hannah Vickery, Caenan McCarthy, and Lily Sostrom. The following students have read all 15 of the S.S.Y.R.A. books, Zachary Mason, Arden Eyestone, Vincent Craig, Dorian Hulbert, Hannah Vickery, Eva Gassert and Jordyn Bernard. Wow! Way to go readers!

See you at the Fall Festival!

2017-2018 Instructional Materials Adoption-Science

The St. Johns County School District curriculum department representatives and adoption committee members are currently conducting the review process for the 2017-2018 Instructional Materials Adoption for Science. The materials listed in the chart below are available for review by our teachers and the public. The core resources that have been submitted for evaluation have come from the state adoption consideration lists. AP materials that will be reviewed are from College Board recommended materials.

Some print materials may be available for review. If you would like access to the available printed materials or require assistance reviewing the online resources, please call the Instructional Resources and Media Services office at 904.547.3947. Materials are available for review from 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM when district offices are open.
