

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

We would like to invite all parents, grandparents and others interested in learning how to make the difficult job of raising children easier and more enjoyable. Please join us on Thursday at 6:00 p.m. for our "Power Parenting" session. We will have three ongoing sessions and you may opt for the two that you are most interested in:

- Creating Parent & Teacher Partnerships
- Principals for Disciplining your Kids
- Creating Routines and Structure for your Kids

This workshop is made possible through our business partnership with Anastasia Baptist Church and our R. B. Hunt P.T.A.O. The program is not a faith-based program, but one designed to make life easier and more enjoyable for all of us who work with children. Childcare and activities for school-aged children will be provided as well as free pizza dinner for all. I am excited that we are able to offer this opportunity for our families. Please reserve your spot by calling the front desk or returning the form on the back of this newsletter.

I would like to congratulate all the students that read all 15 of the S.S.Y.R.A. books. They are Abe Hoffman, Isabelle Ottilo, Owen Pytel, Silas Cromwell, Liam King, Logan Chambliss and Any Birchall. These students will now be able to participate in the R. B. Hunt "Battle of the Books" this spring. Way to go readers!

Have a great weekend,

Amanda S. Garman

PTAO News

Happy February! Our next meeting is Thursday, February 15th at 6:00pm. We will have childcare AND pizza for the kiddos, so it will be worth your time. We will be discussing the Run4Hunt, the Robotics Club, and hopefully, completing our Executive Board for the 2018-2019 school year.

Please send in your Run4Hunt Entry forms in as soon as possible. The race is February 24th at 9:00am, rain or shine. You can also register the day of starting at 8:30am in Coach Durr Field (the field behind R.B. Hunt). This is a great family event and inspires your children to love running and races.
