

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Today is our first MONDAY Catch-Up. We would love your feedback!

Thank you to all of you who supported our Run4Hunt Saturday, February 24th. It was perfect weather and a whole lot of fun. Proceeds raised will go to the "Kaye Walton Fund" that helps supports our students in need. A very special thank you to Emily Gordon and Maria Carlson for chairing this event and the P.T.A.O. board for all their help.

FSA Writing for 4th and 5th grade students will be held tomorrow. Please be sure to have students well rested, with a good breakfast and on time to school. They are ready to write - they have been working all year on their language arts skills!

We have an important SAC meeting on Tuesday. We will have training on collaborative and shared decision-making. The superintendent has also asked us to get your input on safety and what would help you or your child to feel safer on campus. The meeting begins at 3:10 in the media center. All interested parents are encouraged to attend.

I have to turn in my student projections to the district this week. If you know your family will be moving and not be attending R. B. Hunt next year, please let me know. Likewise, if you know of anyone moving into our zone, encourage him or her to register right away for next year. I can only hire for the students enrolled in school, so it is essential that people register early, so we can have the best teachers for our students. Also, we start Kindergarten registration next Tuesday, March 13th; 9:00a.m.-1:00p.m. Spread the word!

Congratulations to Zoey Toy, Angie Kalanik, Olive Ferreira and Stella Gay who have read all 15 of the Sunshine State Young Reader Awards books. They will join the others and head to the "Battle of the Books" in May. We also have more students who have become members of the "Principal's Million Word Club". They are Logan Chambliss, Sean Koblinski, Brooke Addison, Zack Watson and Lily Crevasse. I am so proud of all of our terrific readers!

Make it a great week!
