

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Thank you all so much for making our teachers feel so special this week! A heartfelt thank you to the P.T.A.O. for organizing such wonderful treats for our staff. The coffee cart, the luncheon and gift drawings were so nice and made a busy month so much more enjoyable. Thank you to all the parents, business partners and students who made goodies, wrote notes, donated gift certificates and all the many other thoughtful gestures that make us feel so special. You are the best!

Please join us on Tuesday from 3:30-6:00p.m. for the Islander Art Expo. Come and join in the fun and help create a school wide piece of art! Enter the cupcake-decorating contest by bringing a dozen cupcakes to the art room by 4:00 p.m. Then at 6:00 p.m. join us in the cafeteria for the Islander Chorus concert. The concert will feature our strings, drum and recorder clubs. We hope you can come and enjoy and celebrate visual and performing arts at Hunt.

Congratulations to fifth graders Gam Farina, Graci Flaherty, and Jack Manville. They represented R. B. Hunt at the St. Johns County STEM Fair this past Saturday. Their science fair projects were innovative and attempted to solve real world problems. Way to go!

Congratulations to Jim Zheng, from Ms. Murden's class for having his artwork chosen to be used on the 5th grade class T-shirts. Way to go Jim!

Good luck to our Battle of the books team that will represent R. B. Hunt this Thursday at the southern battle of the books. They are Jack Parkey, (team captain), Ella Lomaglio, Graci Flaherty, Reef Robinson, and Nolan Rodriguez. R. B. Hunt had a whopping 55 students read all 15 of the S.S.Y.R.A. books. They will cheer the team on at Gamble Rodgers on Thursday. Good luck team!

Looking forward to a great week under the lighthouse,
