

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

An R. B. Hunt tradition, "The Parade of Characters" will be Friday, October 26th 8:50 a.m. in the bus loop. Students are encouraged to dress up as their favorite storybook character. It is best if students come to school in their costumes on Friday morning. If they cannot wear the costume over their school clothes, they are to bring a change of clothes with them. We also remind students that face-painting, and weapons (real or play) are not allowed. Parents and family members may view the parade if they have been cleared as a volunteer. If you would like us to pre-print your badge, please fill out the form on the back of the newsletter and turn in tomorrow. After that you will have to sign in through the computer in the front office.

Fall festival will be held this Friday 5:30-7:30 pm. Each class has designed a booth for fun. Wrist bands to play all games will be available for school age children for $12.00, little ones are free. Hamburgers, hot dogs, pizza, drinks and bake sale items will be available. Entertainment will be provided by: North Florida Martial Arts, and The Dance Company. The Book fair will be in full swing in the multi-purpose room. Please join us for a fun, family evening.

I would like to thank Doushka Cruz and Vanessa Vega, business partners from "Little Smiles Children's Dentistry" and Amy Gibbs, P.T.A.O. business partner chair for attending the Character Counts Community Breakfast with me on Wednesday. It is through the continued support of our business partners that R. B. Hunt is able to do so many wonderful things for our students and staff. It certainly "takes a village" and I feel so blessed to have the support of so many.

R. B. Hunt will celebrate and honor our Veterans by having a special Wall of Honor in the front hallway during the month of November. Students and staff are invited to bring a copy (no originals) of a picture of a family members in uniform representing a branch of military service. Please attach a note with your name, the service person's name, relationship, military branch and the years of service.

Congratulations to our two new members of the "Principal's Million Word Club", Nolia Seward and Selena Zheng. Way to go girls!

Looking Forward to a great week,

Amanda S. Garman
Principal
