

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Thank you to all of our families who supported our Fall Festival. It was a great night that came together with the hard work of all the room parents, teachers and our P.T.A.O. A very special thanks to Lindsay Ohlin for chairing the event and to Amy Birchall for organizing the pumpkin contest. Our awesome custodial staff and cafeteria manager made sure everything was set up and taken down and the school was ready for business as usual on Monday. It is so great when we all come together to make things happen for our children. Thanks again for your support.

I want to congratulate Safari McMandon, 4th grader in Mrs. Nehemias's class and Phoebe Armstrong, 2nd grader in Mrs. Seltzer and King's class for being the overall winners of the fire prevention poster contest sponsored by the City of St. Augustine Fire Department. This is a first for our school having winner in both age groups. The girls were treated to a ride in the fire truck, a tour of the station and lunch. Thank you for representing R. B. Hunt!

The Book Fair is in full swing and will run through this Thursday. Thank you to Kara Tozer for chairing this event and to the parents and teachers that have stepped in to help out this week and Friday evening.

Congratulations to Kai Hulbert, Zachary Mason, Lily Crevasse, Emry Hogan and Reese Garrison for reading all fifteen of the S.S.Y.R.A. books. We also have four more students in the "Principal's Million Word Club", they are Adelaide Oliver, Luciana Giannini, Jack Sharman and Lana Garrison. Great work readers!

Don't forget those pictures for our Veterans "Wall of Honor". We are looking forward to another great week under the lighthouse.

Most Sincerely,

Amanda S. Garman
Principal

The Salt Life Food Shack is a Principal’s List Donor!

In 2003, four friends from Jacksonville Beach created the Salt Life Brand. It has become very well-known across America, and lucky for us, also a restaurant. The Salt Life Food Shack restaurant is right down the road from R.B. Hunt across from the St. Augustine Pier. They have burgers, seafood, sushi, poke bowls. Their fish tank was made by the show Tanked. They also have great live music.

PTAO News

Thank you to everyone for making the Fall Festival a success. It is so amazing that all the parents and teachers come together to create a magical day/ evening for our students and the community. Lindsay Ohlin did a phenomenal job as chair; if you or someone you know is planning an event, keep Lindsay, the owner of Coastal Celebrations of St. Augustine in mind.

The Fall Book Fair began Friday and will go until Friday. You can sign up with an e-wallet online at scholastic.com/bf/rbhuntelementary or just refer to the Hunt’s Catch Up for the day and time when your student’s class is visiting. Please send in cash or a check in an envelope with the name and amount and add 6% sales tax. Parents are welcome to accompany their student during their allotted time and also after school and purchase items with a credit card. There is fiction, nonfiction, picture books, toys and cook books as well for early holiday shopping. If you want to volunteer, please email Allison at rbhuntvolunteers@gmail.com
