

HUNT'S CATCH-UP

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Last Friday our fifth grade students got to attend "Camp Hunt", a special team building overnight camp out behind our school. We all enjoyed a campfire, s'mores and fun. Special thanks to our P.E. coach, Mr. Zeagler for organizing and planning this event and to our 5th grade teaching team, Mrs. Basili, Mr. Cacchio, Mrs. Cleary, Ms. Streit, Ms. Murden and intern, Mr. Heinmets, as well as Mrs. Atteberry, Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. McElhone and Ms. Antoine for helping chaperone. We had a great time. The 5th grade class demonstrated the "Pillars of Character" all night long!

Please make plans to join us on Tuesday, December 4th at 6:00 p.m. for our holiday concert performed by our 4th and 5th grade Islander Chorus, Recorder, Instrumental Group and Strings. Trees for "Festival of Trees" will be on display and tickets will be sold at that time.

On Saturday, December 15th, from 9:00-11:00, the Jolly Old Man himself will be stopping by R. B. Hunt for Breakfast. He is looking forward to hearing what all the boys and girls are wishing for this season. More information will be going home today in the form of a flyer on the exciting visit. The breakfast will be catered by Bojangles, so reservations are most helpful.

We have a whole bunch of excellent readers that are now in the "Principal's Million Word Club", they are; Lily Crevasse, Dorian Hulbert, Owen Pytel, Amelia Kosiewska, Abigail Koppman, Lauren Garrison, Caenan McCarthy and Chandler DuBrow. Wow- terrific job readers!

Looking Forward to a great week,

Amanda Garman
