

Hunt's Catch Up

Dear R. B. Hunt Family:

Thank you to Ms. Christine and Mrs. Morin for the wonderful "Night of the Arts" last Tuesday. The artwork and music our students are creating is amazing! What talented students and teachers we have. Thank you to both these fantastic teachers for all the extra time and effort they put in to these programs. A special thanks to Stella Dean and Ginny Gavin for helping Ms. Christine prepare for the Art Expo and to Jason Ottilo, Sofviea Aizha-Roussy, Karina McClaron, Ashley Altman, Lauren Leth and Kara Tozer for helping out with the chorus students before the concert. Thank you to all our parents for their continued support.

Congratulations to Mrs. Welu's first grade class for bringing in the most Box Tops for Education!

F.S.A. testing continues this week with 3rd, 4th and 5th grade students taking the math tests on Monday and Tuesday. Please note that first and third grades will switch lunch times on Monday and Tuesday.

Please note schedule changes:

P.T.A.O. sent home a letter with the "Catch-Up" today letting you know of the special things they are doing for Teacher Appreciation Week, May 13th through the 17th. Teacher appreciation week was postponed a week due to the state testing schedule being so late this year.

The last P.T.A.O. meeting of the year has also been changes along with the Volunteer Breakfast. They will be held on Tuesday, May 14th at 8:30a.m. instead of on Thursday. Dress Code: Apparently, many of our students have grown over the winter and their shorts are way too short to be school appropriate. District dress code states: that shorts and skirts should be no shorter than 4" above the knee. Parents, please make sure students follow the dress code.

We have four more students who have read one million words and are in the "Principal's Million Word Club". They are Adelaide Pacetti, Greta Millard, Olivia Eklund and Maryam Shandor. Way to go readers!

Looking forward to a great week,
Amanda S. Garman
