

Hunts Catch Up

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Thank you families for the smooth transition to our new school entrance procedures. We appreciate your children being on time and ready to learn. Thank you for a great start to second semester. Report cards will be available in H.A.C. (Home Access Center) on Friday.

In conjunction with "Literacy Week", we are also sponsoring our "Super bowl of Caring". This year we are joining in with first grade to collect gently used cloth grocery bags and items for the "Blessings in a Backpack" program, to include healthy snack items to go home with students who need healthy snacks and food for the weekend.

I would like to congratulate our "Outstanding Volunteers of the Year". Mr. Peter Morin has been volunteering with our music program for the past seven years. His passion for music is inspiring to our students. He has also been an active member on our S.A.C. team for the past seven years. Dr. Karen Ford has been working with our 5th grade science program, bringing her expertise and excitement for science and learning and helping our kids makes significant learning gains in science. Dr. Ford also brings her trained reading dog "Sky" to read with our students. They both will be honored on April 2nd at the District Volunteer Banquet.

Wow! We have so many more students to add to the "Principal's Million Word Club", you must have been reading over break! Let us celebrate a great job for Zachary Scott, Riley Pangle, Abigail Koppman, Caenan McCarthy, Lily Sostrom, Kaia Marshall-Green, Zoe Gentry, Gabriel Batarick and Hayden Crabb.

Congratulations to our students who won our S.S.Y.R.A. battle of the books: Emma Hapke, Stella Fernandez, Gracie Cebalt, Lily Sostrom, Emma Goldberg, Aria Driver and Leta Poole. They will be representing R. B. Hunt at the District "Battle of the Books" on January 28th. Good luck team!

Glad to be back in the swing of school,

Amanda S. Garman

PTAO NEWS

We hope you all enjoyed your winter break and we wish you a happy new year! Our next PTAO meeting is this Thursday, January 16th at 8:40am in the cafeteria. We will review the budget and what events will be held for the remainder of the school year.

The next collection of Box Top clippings is right around the corner! Box Tops are to be mailed by March 1. Our coordinator will be collecting envelopes from each teacher on Feb 14 and again Feb 21. Please be sure to send your box top clippings in your child's red folder so they can be included in the classroom competition. Winning classroom receives a Box Top Party and winning classroom teacher receives $25 gift card. Please continue to scan your store receipts in the Box Top App. Scanned receipts are also part of the classroom totals!

Please follow R.B. Hunt PTAO on Facebook. We post important information, such as Spirit Nights, meetings and other info.

The first grade is going to celebrate the 120th day by helping others.

These classes are inviting any other families who want to participate to join their quest to help the SJCS D Assist program.

They are collecting 120 or more gently used cloth bags, such as grocery bags.

The Assist program uses these bags to provide needy students of St. Johns County clothes, necessities and food. Please send any gently used bags by Feb. 18. There will be a collection box near the front office.

Thank you
