

Hunts Catch Up

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

The holidays are upon us. We are celebrating a bit differently this year, but our students are excited about the beautiful decorations around the school, so lovingly placed by Mrs. Atteberry. A big thanks for all her hard work and willingness to share her creativity with our R. B. Hunt family.

Our Polar Express has started down the tracks, feel free to decorate a train car and join in the fun. Students have so much fun counting, estimating, and looking at our Polar Express.

Each class is decorating a miniature tree that will be on display for the school to enjoy. So far, I have heard of classroom "family" tree, a "nature" tree and "kindness" tree. Thank you P.T.A.O. for providing the trees for each class and grant money for classes to create holiday crafts to share with their families.

Readers are Leaders- Congratulations to Rainia and Tatiana Unwalla for reading all 15 S.S.Y.R.A. books and to Ella Lewis, Donavan Grode and Abigail Koppman for earning a spot in the Principal's Million Word Club! Ella is a double winner! Keep growing your brains, we have a few students getting close. Use some of your vacation to read a great book.

Library News: Did you know we have to quarantine books for 24 hours before they go back out? Please plan accordingly.

Thank you for supporting the Charleston Wrap fundraiser and the online book-fair. P.T.A.O. raised funds that will go directly to support our school and students. The online bookfair raised $654.53 for us to purchase books for the media center.

Thank you for all you do to have your children ready to learn each day,

Amanda S. Garman
