

HUNT'S CATCH UP

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Happy New Year R. B. Hunt Families! What a learning year this has been. I have been so amazed by our wonderful students and their ability to adapt to different situations, new staff members and routines this year. I am so proud of all these children and how they have stepped up and been such responsible citizens at school. Thank you! Please continue to build their confidence by letting them do things that they can. Carrying their backpacks, making their beds, and cleaning up after themselves all help them to grow into responsible adults and allow them to feel good about themselves.

Thank you to our wonderful P.T.A.O. for the awesome holiday week. We appreciate you doing these special things to keep the holiday spirit up "under the lighthouse". The classroom trees, sponsoring special classroom projects, decorating the teacher's lounge, the coffee cart, and the teacher luncheon were all special treats. It was a bit different this year, but we so appreciate all these activities. Teachers do not get to go out for lunch, having brown bag lunches and the cafeteria are fine- but what a nice treat to have lunch and breakfast treats during that busy pre-holiday week. Thanks so much!

Congratulations to Grace Johnston, 5th grade student in Mrs. Cleary's class for representing R. B. Hunt at the online district Spelling Bee and becoming a finalist that will compete again this week! Good luck Gracie- we are so proud of you!

Parents check out the fun activities we have in store to celebrate "Literacy Week" located on the back of the catch-up. The theme this year is "Humanity Tells a Story: What's Your Chapter? I can hardly wait to see what everyone comes dressed as each day. Hmm... what do I want to be as my future self???

Fifth grade parents- information on 5th grade yearbook dedications is located on the back of this newsletter. Do not miss out- the deadline is February 14th.

Congratulations Teagan Duggan and Mackenzie Saxon for reading all fifteen of the S.S.Y.R.A. books. We also have so many students who are now part of the "Principal's Million Word Club", they are Kevin Moe, Lily Cline, Riley Pangle, Rowan Valla, Brady Van Etta, Alexandros Darios, Margaux Hooks, and Gage Bryndal. Way to go readers! Looking Forward to a GREAT 2021!
