

Hunts Catch Up

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Please make sure your permission slips have been turned in for the Lion King! We want your children to experience this awesome performance!

This Thursday we will honor Maria Stephens, our new confidential school secretary as our Support Related Employee of the Year. She will be recognized at the S.R.E.Y. banquet on Thursday evening held at World Golf Village. Ms. Stephens started at R. B. Hunt working as an extended day aide, then became our L.E.A. clerk and now our school secretary. We are so please she is being recognized for her hard work at R. B. Hunt.

First, I want to thank all the families that make education a priority in their home. We are becoming quite frustrated with our attendance at R. B. Hunt. We understand that the world has now opened, and travel is an option for families now, but I cannot tell you how much children miss when they miss a day of school. Many of our children have yet to recover from online learning and the other various options last year- it is just not the same level of interaction and many of our kids have struggled with social and emotional adjustments as well. Children typically thrive in routine and when students miss school frequently it not only hurts them academically but can also create a great deal of anxiety when their class has moved on and they feel behind.

No new members of the "Principal's Million Word Club" Keep reading we have several students that are close!

Thank you for your Support,
Amanda S. Garman
Principal
