

HUNTS CATCH UP

Dear R. B. Hunt Family,

Next week we will Launch into Literacy at R. B. Hunt! As part of the celebration, we will explore books with a new genre, a new setting, the past, the future, or even outer space. If you usually read fictional adventure books, try an information text about animals. Do you always grab a graphic novel? How about reading a biography about a famous American? Maybe it is time to read a book about your future career. Does anyone want to be an astronaut? Mrs. Nehemias, our media specialist, will be helping students broaden their book horizons. On Friday, January 28, we will all dress up for an out of this world parade to show our classmates where we landed when we blasted off into new worlds with a book. The sky's the limit!

Class group pictures will be next Thursday, January 27th. Please be sure to turn in your order packet. These will be outside on the playground, weather permitting. If you want a Yearbook, order it now and if you want a 5th grade dedication the deadline is February 14th. NO EXCEPTIONS! More information is listed on the back of the "Catch-Up".

Thanks to all the wonderful parents that helped us with the Winter "SHINE" celebration. (We even had a bit of Florida snow). Our volunteers served up treats and smiles to our students. Thanks again to Kara Finchman, Kathryn Charalambous, Stephanie Hall, Margarita Stoyanov, Stephanie Hall, Doug Gibson, Lisa Gleaton, Monica McGraw, Shellie Joyner, Christina Quinney, Lisa Tarr, Laura McGowan, Serena Waller, Shannon Cornelison and Alison Johnson. We couldn't have done it without all of you!

We have three more students who have become members of the prestigious "Principal's Million Word Club". They are Kalia Chaconas, Avielle Stilip and Soleil McMandon. I am happy and proud that you LOVE to read! Congratulations!

Happy Winter,

Amanda S. Garman
